INTRODUCTION

The following statement of facts is based, in part, on the complaint filed in this case. Mr. Carrillo does not accept this statement of facts as his own, and reserves the right to take a contrary position at motion hearings and trial. Mr. Carrillo reserves the right to challenge the truth and accuracy of these facts in any subsequent pleadings or during any further proceedings.

On April 10, 2008, at approximately 5:50 p.m., United States Border Patrol agents arrested Mr. Carrillo near the Tecate, California, Port of Entry. Mr. Carrillo was initially questioned without being given Miranda warnings. Subsequently, Mr. Carrillo was advised he had a right to contact the Mexican consulate and apparently was questioned again without Miranda warnings. Then, at approximately 11:45 p.m., Mr. Carrillo was advised that his Administrative Rights would no longer apply because he was

1 being charged criminally. Mr. Carrillo was then advised of his Miranda rights and questioned for a third time
 2 but stated he did not wish to answer any questions without a lawyer present.

3 II.

4 MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY/PRESERVE EVIDENCE

5 Defendant moves for the production of the following discovery. This request is not limited to those items
 6 that the prosecutor knows of, but rather includes all discovery listed below that is in the custody, control, care,
 7 or knowledge of any "closely related investigative [or other] agencies." See United States v. Bryan,
 8 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989).

9 1. The Defendant's Statements. The government must disclose to the defendant all copies of 10 any written or recorded statements made by the defendant; the substance of any statements made by the 11 defendant which the government intends to offer in evidence at trial; any response by the defendant to 12 interrogation; the substance of any oral statements which the government intends to introduce at trial and any 13 written summaries of the defendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of the government
 14 agent; any response to any Miranda warnings which may have been given to the defendant; as well as any 15 other statements by the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B). The Advisory Committee
 16 Notes and the 1991 amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the Government must reveal all the defendant's 17 statements, whether oral or written, regardless of whether the government intends to make any use of those 18 statements. See also United States v. Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105, 1113-1114 (9th Cir. 1982).

19 2. Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. Defendant also specifically requests the 20 government to turn over all arrest reports, notes, dispatch or any other tapes, and TECS records that relate to 21 the circumstances surrounding the defendant's arrest and any questioning. This request includes, but is not 22 limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents in which statements of the 23 defendant or any other discoverable material is contained. Such material is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim.
 24 P. 16(a)(1)(A), Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B), and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The government
 25 must produce arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, dispatch tapes, sworn 26 statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E), Fed. R.
 27 Crim. P. 26.2, and United States v. Riley, 189 F.3d 802, 806-808 (9th Cir. 1999). Preservation of rough notes
 28 is requested, whether or not the government deems them discoverable.

1 3. Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and 2 tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the 3 government's case. Under Brady, impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition
4 of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 5 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

6 4. Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under The Guidelines. The 7 government must produce this information under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

8 5. The Defendant's Prior Record. The defendant requests disclosure of all alleged prior criminal 9 convictions and law enforcement contacts, if any. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D).

10 6. Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. To the extent that there is any such evidence, the 11 government must produce evidence of prior similar acts under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and "shall provide 12 reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the general nature" of any evidence the government proposes to 13 introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) at trial. See United States v. Vega, 188 F. 3d 1150, 1154-1155
14 (9th Cir. 1999). The defendant requests that such notice be given three weeks before trial in order to give the 15 defense time to adequately investigate and prepare for trial.

16 7. Evidence Seized. The defendant requests production of evidence seized as a result of any 17 search, either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D).

18 8. Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defense specifically requests that all dispatch
19 tapes or any other physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the possession,
20 custody or care of the government and which relate to the arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this case 21 be preserved.

22 9. Henthorn Material. The defendant requests that the Assistant United States Attorney
23 ("AUSA") assigned to this case oversee (not personally conduct) a review of all personnel files of each agent 24 involved in the present case, and produce to him any exculpatory information and impeachment material at 25 least two weeks prior to trial and one week prior to the motion hearing. See Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 437, 26 438 (1995) (holding that "the individual prosecutor has a duty to learn of any favorable evidence known to 27 the others acting on the government's behalf in the case, including the police"); United States v. Henthorn, 28 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991); see also United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488 (9th Cir. 1992) (AUSA may

1 not be ordered to personally conduct examination of records; appropriate government agency may review files
2 and notify AUSA of contents as long as AUSA makes the determination regarding material to be disclosed);
3 United States v. Herring, 83 F.3d 1120 (9th Cir. 1996) (accord). In addition, the defendant requests that if 4 the government is uncertain whether certain information is to be turned over pursuant to this request, that it
5 produce such information to the Court in advance of the trial and the motion hearing for an in camera 6 inspection.

7 10. Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect, copy, and test, as 8 necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, documents, alleged 9 narcotics, fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, which are material to the defense or 10 intended for use in the government's case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to the defendant.
11 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E). Specifically, defendant requests copies of his immigration file as well as 12 any recordings of his alleged prior removal.

13 11. Expert Witnesses. Defendant requests the name, qualifications, and a written summary of 14 the testimony of any person that the government intends to call as an expert witness during its case in chief.
15 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G). Defendant requests the notice of expert testimony be provided at a minimum 16 of two weeks prior to trial so that the defense can properly prepare to address and respond to this testimony,
17 including obtaining its own expert and/or investigating the opinions, credentials of the government's expert
18 and a hearing in advance of trial to determine the admissibility of qualifications of any expert. See Kumho 19 v. Carmichael Tire Co., 526 U.S. 137, 119 S.Ct. 1167, 1176 (1999) (trial judge is "gatekeeper" and must 20 determine, reliability and relevancy of expert testimony and such determinations may require "special briefing 21 or other proceedings").

22 12. Impeachment Evidence. The defendant requests any evidence that any prospective 23 government witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and whether any 24 witness has made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613; Brady v.
25 Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963); United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197, 1201-1202 (9th Cir. 1988); Thomas 26 v. United States, 343 F.2d 49, 53-54 (9th Cir. 1965).

27 ///

28 ///

1 13. Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. The defendant requests
2 any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any 3 criminal conduct.

4 14. Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. Defendant requests any evidence that any prospective
5 Government witness is biased or prejudiced against Defendant, or has a motive to falsify or distort his or her
6 testimony. Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39, 57-58 (1987); United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197, 1201-
7 1202 (9th Cir. 1988).

8 15. Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Truth Telling. The 9 defense requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, that tends to show 10 that any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth is impaired, and 11 any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an 12 alcoholic. See United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197, 1201-1202 (9th Cir. 1988).

13 16. Witness Addresses. The defendant requests the name and last known address of each 14 prospective government witness. See United States v. Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense 15 counsel has equal right to talk to witnesses). The defendant also requests the name and last known address
16 of every witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof)
17 who will not be called as a government witness. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453 (9th Cir. 1984).

18 17. Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. The defendant requests the name of any 19 witness who made an arguably favorable statement concerning the defendant or who could not identify him 20 or who was unsure of his identity, or participation in the crime charged.

21 18. Statements Relevant to the Defense. The defendant requests disclosure of any statement
22 relevant to any possible defense or contention that he might assert. United States v. Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105
23 (9th Cir. 1982). This includes all statements by percipient witnesses.

24 19. Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of trial of all material,
25 including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500
26 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay at trial to allow the 27 defendant to investigate the Jencks material. A verbal acknowledgment that "rough" notes constitute an 28 accurate account of the witness' interview is sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under

1 section 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963). In United States v. Boshell,
2 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) the Ninth Circuit held that when an agent goes over interview notes with the 3 subject of the interview the notes are then subject to the Jencks Act. See also United States v. Riley, 189 F.3d
4 802, 806-808 (9th Cir. 1999). Defendant requests pre-trial disclosure of such statements to avoid unnecessary
5 recesses and delays for defense counsel to properly use any Jencks statements and prepare for cross-
6 examination.

7 20. Giglio Information & Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. Pursuant to 8 Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), the defendant requests all statements and/or promises, express 9 or implied, made to any witness, in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information which 10 could be used for impeachment.

11 21. Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. The defendant requests discovery
12 regarding any express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, present, or future 13 compensation, or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any implicit understanding relating 14 to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, between any prospective government witness and 15 the government (federal, state and/or local). This request also includes any discussion with a potential witness
16 about or advice concerning any contemplated prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no bargain
17 was made, or the advice not followed.

18 22. Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of the names and 19 addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case, and in particular,
20 disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or otherwise participated in the crime
21 charged against the defendant. The government must disclose the informant's identity and location, as well
22 as disclose the existence of any other percipient witness unknown or unknowable to the defense. Roviaro v.
23 United States, 353 U.S. 52, 61-62 (1957). The government must disclose any information derived from 24 informants which exculpates or tends to exculpate the defendant.

25 23. Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of any 26 information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v. United States,
27 405 U.S. 150 (1972). Such information would include what, if any, inducements, favors, payments or threats
28 were made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

24. Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest. Defendant requests all citizen complaints and other related internal affairs documents involving any of the immigration officers or other law enforcement officers who were involved in the investigation, arrest and interrogation of Defendant. See Pitchess v. Superior Court, 11 Cal. 3d 531, 539 (1974). Because of the sensitive nature of these documents, defense counsel will be unable to procure them from any other source.

25. Training of Relevant Law Enforcement Officers. Defendant requests copies of all written, videotaped or otherwise recorded policies or training instructions or manuals issued by all law enforcement agencies involved in the case (United States Customs Service, Border Patrol, DHS, Imperial Beach Sheriff's Department, etc.) to their employees regarding: (1) the informing of suspects of their Constitutional rights; (2) the questioning of suspects and witnesses.

26. Residual Request. The defendant intends by this discovery motion to invoke his rights to discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Constitution and laws of the United States. The defendant requests that the government provide him and his attorney with the above requested material sufficiently in advance of trial to avoid unnecessary delay prior to cross-examination.

III.

THE COURT MUST SUPPRESS MR. CARRILLO'S STATEMENTS UNDER THE FIFTH AMENDMENT

A. Miranda Warnings Must Precede Custodial Interrogation.

The Supreme Court has held that the government may not use statements, whether exculpatory or inculpatory, obtained during custodial interrogation of the defendant unless it demonstrates the use of procedural safeguards effective to secure the privilege against self-incrimination. Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436, 444 (1966). The law imposes no substantive duty upon the accused to make any showing other than that the statements were taken while the accused was in custody and subject to interrogation. Id. at 476. Custodial interrogation is questioning initiated by law enforcement officers after a person has been taken into custody or otherwise deprived of her freedom of action in any significant way. Id. at 477; see also Orozco v. Texas, 394 U.S. 324, 327 (1969). In Stansbury v. California, 511 U.S. 318 (1994), the Supreme Court stated that "the initial determination of custody depends on the objective circumstances of the interrogation,

1 not on the subjective views harbored by either the interrogating officers or the person being questioned.” Id.
 2 at 323.

3 When it takes an accused’s statement during custodial interrogation, a heavy burden rests on the 4 government to demonstrate that the accused intelligently and voluntarily waived her privilege against self-
 5 incrimination. To satisfy this burden, the prosecution must introduce evidence sufficient to establish “that 6 under the ‘totality of the circumstances,’ the defendant was aware of ‘the nature of the right being abandoned
 7 and the consequences of the decision to abandon it.” United States v. Garibay, 143 F.3d 534, 536
 8 (9th Cir. 1998) (quoting Moran v. Burbine, 475 U.S. 412, 421 (1986)). The Ninth Circuit has stated that 9 “[t]here is a presumption against waiver.” Garibay, 143 F.3d at 536. The standard of proof for a waiver of 10 constitutional rights is high. Miranda, 384 U.S. at 475; see also United States v. Heldt, 745 F.2d 1275, 1277
 11 (9th Cir. 1984) (the burden on the government is great, the court must indulge every reasonable presumption 12 against waiver of fundamental constitutional rights) (citing Johnson v. Zerbst, 304 US 458, 464 (1938)).
 13 Finally, it should be noted that, since Miranda rests on a constitutional foundation, see Dickerson v.
 14 United States, 530 U.S. 428, 438 (2000), no law or local court rule relieves the government of its burden
 15 to prove that Mr. Carillo voluntarily waived the Miranda protections. Miranda, 384 U.S. at 475.

16 The validity of the waiver depends upon the particular facts and circumstances of the case, and 17 include the background, experience, and conduct of the accused. Edwards v. Arizona, 451 U.S. 477, 482
 18 (1981); Johnson v. Zerbst, 304 U.S. 458, 464 (1938); see also Garibay, 143 F.3d at 536; United States v.
 19 Bernard S., 795 F.2d at 751 (“a valid waiver of Miranda rights depends upon the totality of the circumstances, 20 including the background, experience and conduct of the accused”). In Derrick v. Peterson, 924 F.2d 813
 21 (9th Cir. 1990), the Ninth Circuit confirmed that the issue of the validity of a Miranda waiver requires a two 22 prong analysis: the waiver must be both (1) voluntary; and, (2) knowing and intelligent. Id. at 820. The 23 voluntariness prong of this analysis “is equivalent to the voluntariness inquiry [under] the [Fifth]
 24 Amendment . . .” Id. The knowledge prong mandates an inquiry into whether “the waiver [was] made with 25 a full awareness both of the nature of the right being abandoned and the consequences of the decision to 26 abandon it.” Id. (quoting Moran v. Burbine, 475 U.S. 412, 421 (1986)); accord Garibay, 143 F.3d at 436.
 27 Thus, “[o]nly if the ‘totality of the circumstances surrounding the interrogation’ reveal both an uncoerced
 28 choice and the requisite level of comprehension may a court properly conclude that the Miranda rights have

1 been waived.” Derrick at 820 (quoting Moran v. Burbine, 475 U.S. at 521) (emphasis in original) (citations
2 omitted)).

3 Here, Mr. Carrillo was in custody when he was questioned. Unless and until it shows the agents
4 properly administered the Miranda warnings and obtained a knowing and intelligent waiver from Mr. Carrillo,
5 the government cannot use evidence obtained as a result of any custodial interrogation that occurred after 6 Mr. Carrillo's arrest. Miranda, 384 U.S. at 479.

7 B. The Government Bears the Burden of Proving that Mr. Carrillo’s Alleged Statements Were 8 Made Voluntarily.

9 Even when the procedural safeguards of Miranda have been satisfied, a defendant in a criminal case
10 is deprived of due process of law if her conviction is founded upon an involuntary confession. Arizona v.
11 Fulminante, 499 U.S. 279 (1991); Jackson v. Denno, 378 U.S. 368, 387 (1964). The government bears the 12 burden of proving that a confession is voluntary. Lego v. Twomey, 404 U.S. 477, 483 (1972).

13 In order to be voluntary, a statement must be the product of a rational intellect and free will.
14 Blackburn v. Alabama, 361 U.S. 199, 208 (1960). In determining whether a defendant’s will was overborne
15 in a particular case, this Court must consider the totality of the circumstances. Schneckloth at 226; see also 16 United States v. Bautista-Avila, 6 F.3d 1360, 1364 (9th Cir. 1993). A statement is involuntary if it is 17 “extracted by any sort of threats or violence, [or] obtained by any direct or implied promises, however slight, 18 [or] by the exertion of any improper influence.” Hutto v. Ross, 429 U.S. 28, 30 (1976) (quoting Bram v.
19 United States, 168 U.S. 532, 542-43 (1897)); see also United States v. Tingle, 658 F.2d 1332, 1335
20 (9th Cir. 1981).

21 To meet its burden, the government must demonstrate that Mr. Carrillo’s statement was not the result 22 of either threats or promises made by the agents, but was made voluntarily.

23 C. This Court Must Conduct An Evidentiary Hearing.

24 Accordingly, this Court must conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine whether the government
25 can meet this burden and use Mr. Carrillo’s statements against him. 18 U.S.C. § 3501. Since “suppression 26 hearings are often as important as the trial itself,” these findings should be supported by evidence, not merely 27 an unsubstantiated recitation of purported evidence in a prosecutor’s responsive pleading. See United States
28 v. Prieto-Villa, 910 F.2d 601, 609-10 (9th Cir. 1990) (quoting Waller v. Georgia, 467 U.S. 39, 46 (1984)).

1 Mr. Carrillo's statements were made as a result of the coercive tactics employed by the agents.
 2 Unless and until the government demonstrates that these statements were made voluntarily, the statements
 3 may not be used for any purpose at trial.

4 IV.

5 THE COURT SHOULD DISMISS THE INDICTMENT DUE
 6 TO MISINSTRUCTION OF THE GRAND JURY

7 The indictment in the instant case was returned by the January 2007 grand jury. That grand jury was 8 instructed on January 11, 2007. The instructions to the impaneled grand jury deviate from the instructions
 9 at issue in the major Ninth Circuit cases challenging a form grand jury instruction previously given in this
 10 district in several ways.¹ First, instructing grand jurors that their singular duty is to determine whether or not 11 probable cause exists and that they have no right to decline to indict when the probable cause standard is 12 satisfied. Second, instructing grand jurors of a non-existent prosecutorial duty to present exculpatory
 13 evidence. These instructions compounded by the erroneous instructions and comments to prospective grand 14 jurors during voir dire of the grand jury panel, which immediately preceded the instructions. Therefore, the 15 indictment should be dismissed.

16 V.

17 REQUEST FOR LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

18 Mr. Carrillo and defense counsel have not received all the discovery in this case. As new information
 19 comes to light, the defense may find it necessary to file further motions. Specifically, defense counsel has not 20 yet had the opportunity to view the A-file in this case. Therefore, defense counsel requests the opportunity 21 to file further motions based upon information gained from any further discovery.

For the reasons stated above, Mr. Carrillo respectfully requests that this Court grant the foregoing motions.
